

Charities helping the Homeless population and their mental health challenges

The People Concern- Has been an LA resource for over 60 years, providing permanent or temporary housing, care, rehab services, and wellness programs. It is considered one of LA County's Largest resources for social services.

Learn More- <https://thepeopleconcern.org/about/>

Donate Here- <https://thepeopleconcern.org/donate/>

UCLA Homeless Healthcare LA Collaborative- This program offers assistance to the homeless population by giving medical and mental evaluations, administering medications to those in need, and being a community resource for mental health support.

Learn More- <https://www.uclahealth.org/programs/hhc>

Donate Here-

<https://giving.ucla.edu/campaign/Donate.aspx?fund=15910C&Code=M-35637>

NAMI Mobile Service Unit- Provides a support system for the unhoused by providing clinical services, mental health evaluations, engagement, support and field based outreach.

Learn More-

<https://namiglac.org/los-angeles-county-department-of-mental-health-homeless-outreach-mobile-engagement-home-program/>

Donate Here- <https://namiglac.org/get-involved/donate/>

Homeless Health Care Los Angeles- Provides a multitude of services including training to the community, education, outreach, case management support, wellbeing, and mental health support.

Learn More- <https://unitedwayla.org/news/homeless-mental-healthcare/>

Donate Here- <https://unitedwayla.org/ways-to-help/give/>

Wesley Health Centers- Provides healthcare services to the under-served through programs and outreach. They administer these programs through mobile clinics and clinical offices.

Learn More- <https://jwchinstitute.org/services/mobile-testing-units/>

Donate Here- <https://jwchinstitute.org/donate-now/>

These are just a couple of amazing organizations so don't feel limited to these resources, if you feel that you or someone you may know is in a crisis please call or text the phone number 988 for the mental health hotline or visit the nearest clinic.